(and Healthy Masculinities)

Véronique Church-Duplessis

Véronique is a Bilingual Program Manager at the White Ribbon Campaign, overseeing the Draw-the-Line Initiative and White Ribbon school-based workshops. She also manages partnerships with educational institutions. Before joining White Ribbon in 2016, she obtained a Ph.D. in history from the University of Toronto and an M.A. from Université de Montréal. Véronique is also an experienced educator and public speaker. She has taught several university-level courses on the topics of gender and history and delivered professional development workshops on the topic of sexual violence prevention across Ontario.
